- Color name maintained as “Charcoal”

2. Color Descriptions

- Updated usage description to: “Secondary section backgrounds (alternates with Deep Navy), smooth variation”
- Improved clarity about the alternation pattern

3. Background Alternation Pattern

Updated pattern now shows:

- Hero Section: Pure Black (#000000)
- Section 1: Deep Navy (#0F172A)
- Section 2: Dark Charcoal (#1F2937) ← Updated
- Section 3: Deep Navy (#0F172A)
- Section 4: Dark Charcoal (#1F2937) ← Updated
- Continue: Navy → Charcoal → Navy → Charcoal

4. CSS Code Examples

All CSS snippets updated:

.section-2 {
  background-color: #1F2937; /* Dark Charcoal */

5. Clarification Notes Added

Added prominent update notices in both brand-guide.html and ghl-guide.html:

✨ Updated: Charcoal changed from #374151 to #1F2937 (darker) for smoother visual alternation with Deep Navy backgrounds.

6. Logo Usage

Dark Charcoal (#1F2937) still works for logos on light backgrounds due to its dark tone.

All brand guide files now feature the darker Charcoal color for smoother, more premium visual alternation with Deep Navy backgrounds.

Visual Impact

The darker Charcoal (#1F2937) creates:

-  Smoother transition between sections
 -  More subtle, professional alternation with Deep Navy
 -  Reduced jarring contrast
 -  Enhanced premium feel
 -  Better visual flow throughout pages
